We didn't last long,
Cause I did it, so the time will tell
So why wrote that last song?
Cause I had a lot of words to say.

This is a sad song,
Cause I never had the heart to stay
I'm walking away,
The best thing to say
The music went and led me astray!
And you never took me out to play
So I let the music go and lead me astray
Keep wanting everything on the plate

I'm walking away,
They ask me to stay
The music went and led me astray (astray)

I'm walking away,
They ask me to stay
The music went and led me astray (led me astray)

We didn't last long,
Cause I did it, so the time will tell
So why wrote that last song?
Cause I had a lot of words to say.

This is a sad song,
Cause I never had the heart to stay
I'm walking away,
The best thing to say
The music went and led me astray!
And you never took me out to play
So I let the music go and lead me astray
Keep wanting everything on the plate

I'm walking away,
They ask me to stay
The music went and led me astray (astray)

I'm walking away,

They ask me to stay
The music went and led me astray (led me astray)
