Regeneration

Composer; DJ Premier

Maestro; Sir Nas

Yeah

Nas in the building

Premier's in the building

Yeah

This is how we redefine, the music

Let's go

Yeah, ya'll know I gets it on, sip on Dom

Clear the throat, wet the pallet

Compose a ballet, then expose a rare talent

The kick drum will have you numb, the snare's valid

That's how Premier styles it

Yeah ya'll know he gets it on, that's a given

Every song I've written, make the sky clear blue

Like the beginning scenes of The Simpsons

Dominions of the British Empire

We'll listen to Bach, with tea and biscuits

Preem revisits, songs centuries old

Hip-Hop; symphony's orchestras out cold with it

You know the flow's administered

By the deputy, rhyme prime-minister

Sir Nas, I'm certified

Please be seated and your shirt and tie, dress is on

Arrive early, when the curtains rise, bet it's on

A certain etiquette involved with this

Unlike any other music genre is, bring the drama in
