Chorus

Come with me to the higher grounds my friend

And see the evils of man

And if you don't like what you see my friend

Then let me explain

The mind and the money really don't mix in

Now do you understand

C.LOCO

Illusions delusions makin' me insane

I feel the pain the boogie man can't be slain

Watch out the heart soul and mind

Destroy mankind with the evil I can't find

(Death becomes you the devil takes over)

Vicious thoughts in your head now you wanna kill another

For money or power I'll die in an hour

A killa I shot a man dead I'm a sinner

POINT BLANC

Come enter the mental chambers of a psychopathic

killa

Tormented sinner on a verge of self-destruction

mankind on malfunction

Manifesting inculcating unholy brainwaves depicting faces of pure evilness

God bless mankind be put to the test

Temptations of darkness consumes society into a hell-

like reality

Eternal damnation see the future in apocalyptic dimensions

Chorus

LANDSLYDE

Hell raiser face the life's full of a maze

Hesitate you make a wrong move psychological error

Terror evil stronger and darker

Throughout the journey of life but I'm not ya preacher

Teacher the Devil's own creature

Killin' one another brother blaming each other

(Corruption of the mind killing and destruction Victimised by mental chain reaction)

Lust and greed wrath and pride

Six hundred more to go it's time for you to ride

Step inside in the real world and find
The good force within you before it's time
POINT BLANC
Enter my mind see the depths of my soul
Discover the cold-blooded corrupted perverted fiend
Of every single man (Damn) You will never understand Insanity in the realms of the damned
C.LOCO
Violence in silence and aforethought malice
Come and meet my master in the damn palace
The devil himself with the evil in his eyes
Come to claim your soul and hear your dying cries
FLIPSIDE
As I sent terror visions straight from my division
Expressin' cynical views with words of my aggression
I forgot to mention you'll be dead in 5 seconds
I'm the evil in all men with you soul in my hands
Come dance with the devil in the pale moonlight
I'll take over your whole world straight without a fight Fell my might as you take a step into my fortress
I create stress in your mind as I do this YOGI B
Twin darkness flipsided unabided
Conscious mortals don't fight it
Uninvited strangers in the chamber of thought
Warlocks and witches psychological onslaught
Don't take off your armour
Or become one will you in my drama
Mistake me do not for the dark entity y'all
Killer of killer slain devils with the righteous claw
Like young Jedi knights who succumb to the Empire Embrace the good force fight fire with fire
But persist if you must in your merciless ways
Then I welcome you to my.... terror domain
