Seems to matter what I do, so I'm saving this 4 U Cos it seems to be the last piece there is
And you haven't had a chance yet to taste this Fragments of a life you shouldn't miss

Seems to matter what I say, so I'll hold my tongue at bay
I'd rather use my lips to kiss your frown away
So your doubts no longer darken your day
So you can hold your head up high come what may

So please remember that I'm gonna follow through all the way
Cos it seems to matter where I go, I will always let you know
That the place where I am is never far
You know you're not alone, don't be alarmed I'll find you no matter where you are

the way

Oh my love, if it's all I can do, I'll take the fall 4 U Cos I will soar when I lay down with you and give my all 4 U
