Chills

Chills come racing down my spine

Like a storm on my skin

With shaking hands

I'll guide your sweet soul into mine

Until I feel you within

And I know

I know that it's all about understanding

And I hid it inside

Your beautiful soul as it's crying for love

To conquer the day slowly dawnin'

I want you to know

You're the heart of my temple of thought

So when you're restless I will calm the ocean for you

In your sorrow I will dry your tears

When you need me I will be there, low beside you

I'll take away all your fears

I'll take away all of your fears

So you can let go all your fears

And you stay

Stay with me when I break down

Like a dream come saving I've

Words shall fail here

I'll just read the way you sound

Till I know the meaning of love, and life

And you keeping I'm understating

What are your needs that you stand in behind

Every words you say to make my day slowly dawnin'

I want you to know

You're the heart of my temple of thought

So when you're restless I will calm the ocean for you

In your sorrow I will dry your tears
When you need me I will be there, low beside you
I'll take away all your fears
I'll take away all of your fears
So you can let go all your fears

Dreams have nothing on my reality I
I'm the scent of your skin
I know where I am endlessly into the sun
Feel the life, dream within

So when you're restless I will calm the ocean for you
In your sorrow I will dry your tears
When you need me I will be there, low beside you
I'll take away all your fears (I'll take away all your fears)
I'll take away all of your fears (I'll take away all of your fears)
I'll take away all your fears (I'll take away all your fears)
I'll take away all of your fears (I'll take away all of your fears)

You can let go all your fears
