YEAH

Forever we'll go out into the night
With survival in all our eyes
With knives in hand
We stab at the sands of time
To turn back and unwind
Under the death of an age
We were becoming stronger than
With terror in our eyes
We wait on these skies
To bring a new chapter
{CHORUS}
I've seen life through death
Under the weight of it all
We all collapse
And these eyes on survive
We will come from the fall (and rise again!)

Like lions we tow the line
Blood-sewn pact with truth inside
With knives in hand
We stab at the sands of time
To turn back and unwind
Under the death of an age
We were becoming stronger than
With terror in our eyes
We wait on these skies
To bring a new chapter

{CHORUS}

THE ALL NIGHT LIGHTS
