Let's paint the sky jet black
In falling slip streams; this is where we lay.
You watch your perfect picture fall apart and scatter on the day.
It's in your hands, don't close your eyes just yet; its
closer than we think. (x2)
Let's get together to just fall apart
These promises we break.
Don't see in black and white,
Refuse belief: that this is how we stay.
It's in your hands, don't close your eyes just yet; its
closer than we think. (x2)
Hold your breath, now breathe in.
