Say that you'll be The one drowning in my heart, to be drowning in your arms, (take me) *3 summers heat, tangled up in sheets (take me) (* Susan gave me that line)

I'm as steady as a sea saw, and as longing as the wind, visions of you come so filling I swoon -- so far and distant and under the same moon, all I ask is you to Take Me
under the strength of your words my heart is carried by a hundred birds (Take me) into death I do seep, into The arms of your hearts sleep (take me)

Breathing as you where,
Lying on The floor
Take Me
Take Me.
