"Early Rebirth"

I'll join you in another place
Last thing he said before the world slipped away
I'll catch you in a forlorn realm
On another side of the shallow open grave
A simple solution to this shit life
A loaded gun and a well placed head
Never met tomorrow
Tomorrow met him dead

Left this one
Born again on the other one
Early rebirth
It only hurts at first

I'll see you in the future
On the reliving of the imposing end
Why live in a place I don't care for?
He asked himself, his only friend
The exit was a shiny pistol
The truth in 9 loud millimeters
Sorry for the mess
But this leaving was a bleeder

Born again on the other one
Early rebirth
It only hurts at first
Born again on the other one
Early rebirth
It only hurts at first
