The desired target of the animosity
The real reason behind my reciprocity
Do you get fulfillment when you hate?
Do you feel an impetus to discriminate?

You are the enemy

The truth behind the lie you spread is ignored
When I stand my ground you feel bored
Sanctity lost in a sea of turmoil
Skin crawls, head warps, eyes twitch, blood boils

You are the enemy

I'm buried inside with your malicious intent
Can't hold back the war I can't prevent
Sanity slips, gripping the gun
You made me do this, don't you fucking run

You are the enemy
