(A. Young M. Young) Hey mister businessman Head of the company Are you looking for a lady One who likes to please Hey mister businessman This one likes to tease With her special service And her French qualities But she won't sacrifice What you want tonight She won't come across Unless there's money in her hand And she's callin' all the shots She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls Hey mister businessman High society She can play the schoolgirl And spank you all you please But she won't sacrifice What you want tonight She won't come across Unless there's money in her hand She don't go overtime She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls Kiss your balls goodbye Hangin' left, hangin' right, got you by the balls Got your shorts, got your curlies, got you, By the balls! She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls She got you by the balls, she got you by the balls She got you by the balls
