Ryan, tomorrow's the big day your mom's coming home with your new baby sister

"baby sister"

That's right ryan, baby sister. Now, we have to go over a few safety rules for when you're around your new baby sister.

"safety rules"

Alright, rule number one: always wash your hands before touching the baby.

"wash hands"

Do you know why?

"no"

Well, because you have germs on your hands, and germs make the baby sick.

Okay, rule number two: Dont feed the baby anything.

"why?"

Well, because the baby has to eat special baby food, because other food is bad for the baby.

That's right ryan.

Now, rule number three: no hot water near the baby cause hot water will burn the baby.

"i don't understand, daddy."

Well, that's all I know so far, I'll update you on the rest later.
