Now that you've been bought and sold
You don't got time to fix the mess your in
And if I may be so bold
I bet you couldn't even do it again.

Lying like yesterday's paper
Just outside your door

Chorus:
Now you need me to clean your shoes
Walk on water be in the mood
Everybody's talking but nobody knows
Where did the emporer get them new clothes

I always did look up to you
I tried to copy everything that you did
Until you broke my heart in two
You shot me up and then you flipped your lid

Lying like yessterdays paper
Just outside your door

Repeat Chorus
