It happens every spring, I hear this blue bird sing
Love is here again to stay
But now that I've seen you, I know this time it's true
Love is really here to stay

Blue eyes look my way, make today my lucky day
Blue eyes lookin' at me
Hope you're liking what you see
Hope you're liking what you see

Nobody ever saw this deeply blue before
Blue bells look up in surprise
The sky admits defeat, the sea will kiss your feet
I could drown in those blue eyes

Blue eyes shining now, everything is right somehow
Blue eyes stay here with me
Find my world in those blue eyes
Find my world in those blue eyes

It happens every spring, I hear this blue bird sing
Love is here again to stay
But now that I've seen you, I know this time it's true
Love is really here to stay

Blue eyes look my way, make today my lucky day
Blue eyes lookin' at me
Hope you're liking what you see
Hope you're liking what you see
