"All The World"

All the world is a story
All the world is a stage
All the world is a canvas
All the world is a page

All the world is a horizon
All the world is a field of dreams
All the world is an open doorway
All the world is a place for me

To be your voice
To be your touch
To give an answer
To show your love

To hold out hope
To offer peace
To shine your light
For everyone to see in all the world

All the world is a someone
All the world is a dance
And all the world is a moment
All the world is a chance

To be your voice
To be your touch
To give an answer
To show your love

To hold out hope
To offer peace
To shine your light
For everyone to see in all the world

You are amazing mercy
You are undying grace
I want the world to see
How wonderful you are upon my face

To be your voice
To be your touch

To give an answer
To show your love

To hold out hope
To offer peace
To shine your light
For everyone to see in all the world

Be your voice
Be your touch
Give an answer
Show your love

Hold out hope
Offer peace
Shine your light
For all the world
