

Point Of Grace "Come To Jesus"

This is for the weary and the weak.
This is for the desperate and ashamed.
This is for the hopeless hiding in the shadows
cupping hands around a flicker of faith.

This is for the one's who don't belong.
This is for the silent castaways.
This is for the sinner peeking through the stained glass from a sidewalk in the cold driving rain.

We all fall down.
We all need saving once in a while.
You are not alone.

We all lose faith and lean on mercy.
And through our darkest night, He said He'd wait for
us.
Just come to Jesus.

For anyone who's given up on God.
For those who tripped and fallen out of grace.
For anyone who's lookin to the bottom of a bottle
for the strength to make it through another day.
We all fall down.
We all need saving once in a while.
You are not alone.

We all lose faith and lean on mercy.
And through our darkest night, He said He'd wait for
us.
Just come to Jesus.
Come to Jesus.

He did not come to raise the living or touch the eyes of those who see.
It was for the bitter and burned-out.
It was for the unforgiveable.
It was for the failure, standing on the bridge, because the guilt's too high a price to pay to live.

We all fall down.
We all need saving once in a while.

You are not alone.

We all lose faith and lean on mercy.
And through our darkest night He said He'd wait for us.
Come to Jesus.
Come to Jesus.
