Upside down and inside out
I think you know what I'm talkin' about
Oh, my perfect world's turned into a mess
It's like you're falling in the dirt in your Sunday dress

Oh, oh, how can you be good enough?
How can you measure up?
Do your best with the world waitin' on your chance
When everything is too much that's when you just
gotta trust
In the way He loves and that's good enough
Yea, the way you love and that's good enough
Oh, good enough

You know those days you're too tired to smile
It's like you're pushin' uphill every extra mile
You think you gotta do it all by yourself
It's like you gotta break down before you ask for help

Oh, oh, how can you be good enough?
How can you measure up?
Do your best with the world waitin' on your chance
When everything is too much that's when you just
gotta trust
In the way He loves and that's good enough
Yea, the way you love and that's good enough

You're so uptight, you need to be unwound
Yea it's alright, boy you can lay it down
Lay down

How can you be good enough?
How can you measure up?
Do your best with the world waitin' on your chance
When everything is too much that's when you just
gotta trust
In the way He loves

How can you be good enough?

How can you measure up?
Do your best with the world waitin' on your chance
When everything is too much that's when you just
gotta trust
In the way He loves (that's good enough)
In the way He loves (that's good enough)
In the way I love (that's good enough)
