I hardly had a bellyful
Never knew a new bicycle Hand-me-down books and shoes
They brought the yule tides in July

I rode a bus, a train and sometimes Strolling for miles to a movie show Singing a song "Shoobedoo"
"While birds and rich folks flew right on by

But we got by Lord knows we got by

Winter wishes wait till June We brightened July with that hot dog fun Tell your mama you're with Sue You bring the beans and I'll find the wine
Them neon lights were bright till 2:00
And sneaking back home with this girl named Jo
I hurried down to say do"
And stared my first man-child in the eye

But we got by Lord knows we got by

And now baby's got his bellyful
And finally here's that new bicycle Working, praying, June to June And mama's got LA gleaming in her eye

And we got by Lord knows we got by

You see we kept on walking and talking, hawking

Ooing, cooing, wooing
Loving, tugging, hugging, rubbing Sugging, fugging, laying, praying, swaying Letting, fretting, begetting, lying Flying, trying, sighing, dying.
