They see him swing from rooftops, as he jumps from ledge to ledge,
And wonder just what makes this man, and what goes through his head,
So they'll all sit and wonder, when they will be saved,
By this nameless faceless man who only lives to keep thier faith.

So don't, believe-
Don't hate me-... Cause

The Hero will drown, the Hero will drown, Drown in here tonight,
The Hero will drown, the Hero will drown, Drown-

They ready the drowning pool for him, as they all tie him down,
And one by one they anchor him, with chains unto the groud,
The waters' getting higher now, and he can hardly stand,
The fluid fills his lungs until he can not feel his hands.

So don't, believe-
( Just abandon all hope, in me- )
Don't hate me-... Cause
( Just abondon all hope- )

I will only let you down-
Let you down, let you down-

There's just no one out there, for me...
