Let me say, that I've let you down again, and I'm sorry.
Let me say, that I never meant, to hurt you now...

But when push comes to shove, and you know that I'm doing,
All that I can just to see this through and,
I'm hoping you'll understand where I'm coming from.

When you walk away and I'm trying to say 'please,
Just don't go, I'm down on my knees'.

I'll do anything to make you stay-

Don't go just yet,
There's still a chance...
Don't walk away, I need you to stay now.
