With all my said unsaids
I could never swallow
The idea of a happy ending
As another days memory dies
As I'm made to smile
These lifeless days
Have left me with an empty heart
Another wounded memory dies
I could / never / swallow your false ideals
Of a lifeless / happy ending
How could words slit my wrists and doors close
Present day heart felt moments / killed by a slap
To the hand / another wounded memory dies
Poisonous screams with messages
Not thought of when released
Another day here / another memory dies
