"Left With Nothing"

If you found love
Why do i stand alone
So many feelings disregarded
As you walked away
Did you take a second glance or a small hesitation
Or was it just a lie
Another period in your life
Our bond never broken
I'll always care
Your face impounded
In my memory
Although my insignificance is great
Your lack of innocence is my reminder
As emptiness
Fulfills my soul
(chorus)
Now you've gone away
And i'm all alone
The first for so many things
So many secrets shared
And now i'm left with nothing
Except the scars I bear
I can still see
The look upon your face
As you walked
Forever out of my life
Remnants of you
An everyday reminder
As I pick up the pieces of my broken heart
(chorus)
