It's alright if you cry and cover your eyes
It's ok if you scream like a girl
I won't tell anyone if you promise the same
Cause I'm scared of the whole world
It's alright if you sigh. put your head next to mine
It's ok if you curl up in a ball
Cause I might give it a try and end in the same
Condition after all

(It goes)

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Is it alright if I'm sad and feeling let down
Is it ok if I'm not myself again
Will you love me the same if I promise to breathe
And count from 1 to 10
Is it alright if I lose track of the world
Is it ok if I hide from the unknown
Will you tell me again the story about
How I'm not alone

(It goes)

Oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh

Walk away from the life you want
And sing the chorus of the broken hearted
