(Chorus)

I hear them calling me will I answer? I see them chasing me will I run from Them?

(Verse 1)

I wake up with cold sweats my life aint over yet paranoid to the point my Whole pillow wet sold my soul faster than an online couple met didn't pay Off my debt and now they set in position to get me lurking on every block Hunt me down till my heart stop and I mold into rock if I turn my back
They'll be ready to attack and you can put that on a stack or a deed to Your Cadillac once before I was vicious leaving enemies in ditches telling On me results in receiving stitches so maybe it'll work and assist me from Getting hurt and they 'll stop trynna put me in the dirt I gotta trick up
My sleeve concealed to keep them away kryptonite to Christopher Reeve but When I turn cold I lose the good in my soul this is one situation that a Cop can't control no.

(Chorus)

I hear them calling me will I answer? I see them chasing me will I run from Them?

Inside the dungeon it's cold and sweet at this stage the devil couldn't even F with me sweep the reaper off his feet equip and load up the heat Infrared to the head now everything is complete you can't compete with Demons on a mission to seek a soul to unfold with stories that'll drown you In a creek the weak weeps as it accept defeat evil spirits run longer than The illuminati mercenary mind state the rage quakes

the lake unintelligent Opponents just steal the bait it's no debate when it's unleashed in skill
The only thing in my mind is murder (x2) kill (x3) sin is in within and
The best friend where this story end is where the next one begin no need to Pretend when it's crawling on your skin this is not the battle that you Really wanna win.

(Chorus)

me will I run from

Them?

(Verse 3)

My ghetto nightmare I'm not afraid to die worst part about it is that I Stabbed him in his all seeing eye what type of guy defines the law with the Devil's paw opposing force approached and he broke his jaw stronger than a Tiger's claw I'm 5'7 tall against all who you gonna call?
Naw, nobody I Embrace my negative side praying for rivals as they flee for cover but no One can hide my disciples suicidal insane don't fit the title decimate you Idol with my poetry recital so avoid the contact very skilled in combat Transformation in rage is what it will attract I hear the voices in my hear
The think I'm crazy paranoia is what keeps my mind vision hazy if you don't Get the picture I'm a one man militia get the wheels turning in your head
Before the real thing get cha.

(Chorus)

me will I run from

Them? (x2)
