"Somewhere"

Clouds above you start to fall
And all of your dad's rage like a storm
And you don't know where you are anymore
Let me help you find what you've been searching for

(Chorus) Somewhere there's a field and a river
You can let your soul run free
Some day let me be the giver
Let me bring you peace
Somewhere there's a break in the river
Where your heart and spirit go free
Some day it'll be for the better
Let this bring you peace

Girl I know you think no one's here
You wait on my shoulder, but you can't fool me
And aren't you tired of standing so tall?
Let me be the one to catch you when you fall
(Chorus)

Let me bring you joy
Let me bring you peace
Take these tears that you cry
And trust them to me
Let me give you hope
Let me give you a home
Be the one constant love
That you never know
(Chorus fades out)
