This is all so familiar
You know we've been here before
Don't you remember this calm, calm feeling
The calm before the storm

If we just stay together
It'll be alright
If we just fight for what we have
It'll get us through, get us through this time

You said how tired you've been feeling
My strength is fading too
But don't give up on me just yet
And I won't give up on you

If we just stay together
It'll be alright
If we just fight for what we have
It'll get us through, get us through, get us through this time

Get us through this time
Stick together, be together you and I

Stay together
It'll be alright
If we just fight for what we have
It'll get us through, get us through

If we just stay together
It'll be alright
If we just fight for what we have
It'll get us through, get us through, get us through this time

Get us through this time
