You ride on down the same old street you've seen a thousand times
That overflows with neon lights ... and enormous signs
My God, how you want to leave there ... well, well

Your head severely poundin' from the night before Baby, you just keep goin' back ... goin' back for more Cause midnight's callin' ... well, well

But you want so bad to leave this whirlwind storm But you can't find no place to grab on So 'round and 'round you go again ... and it just ain't easy

You want so bad to leave this whirlwind storm
But you can't find no place to grab on ... no
So 'round and 'round we go again ... it just ain't easy
No ... it just ain't easy

Lovely ladies all dressed in silk and lace While you're there ... oh, it seems like such a lovely place
But when you leave there ... you got your hat down on your face ... well, well Oh, when you leave there ... you got your hat down on
your face ... well, well Oh, when you leave there ... you got your hat pulled down on your face ... well, well Oh, when you leave there ... got your hat down on your face ... well, well
Oh!
Whoo-hooo!
Well, well
Oh, when you leave down there ... oh, you got your hat
down on your face ... well, well
Well, well
When you leave down there
