It's saturday night
And I am all alone for the first time
(I.. I..)
You're waiting to step out in my world
To find the guy that wanted me to be his girl

(Trip into my)
Trip into my ride
And head into the inside, where I can find you
(Head back inside..)
Eyes on the floor, no more
You gotta let me know

In the still of the night
I am looking to find
Somewhere safe, somewhere warm
In the arms of love

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars
That get in the way

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me
And take my heart away

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars
That get in the way

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me
And take my heart away

You take my heart away...

How there, should I

Try to go on living my life
(Without you...)
I shall care for you, I said where were you
When I hold you, I wanna be there for you

This is sleepless night
(Without you by my side)
And you not by my side
For you know I'm there for you, care for you
Where were you, I wanna be there for you
In everything you do

In the still of the night
I am looking to find
Somewhere safe, somewhere warm
In the arms of love

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me

If I can find my way...in a sleepless night

I'm looking for you baby...

In the still of the night

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
I'm lost in the stars

I'm looking for you
And can't find my way
And ohh yeah let me

(I can wait, I can wait no...)
