Far away I feel your beating heart
All alone beneath the crystal stars

Staring into space
What a lonely face
I'll try to find my place with you

What a beautiful smile
Can I stay for a while
On this beautiful night we'll make everything right
My beautiful love
My beautiful love

Larger than the moon
My love for you
Worlds collide as heaven pulls us through

The secret of the world is written in the stars
I'm carrying your heart in mine

What a beautiful smile
Can I stay for a while
On this beautiful night we'll make everything right
My beautiful love

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire as it burns through
me

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire as it burns through
me

Maybe a greater thing will happen
Maybe all will see
Maybe our love will catch like fire as it burns through
me

(Beautiful smile)

Can I stay for a while (Stay for a while)
On this beautiful night we'll make everything right
(Beautiful night)
(Everything right)

What a beautiful smile
(Beautiful smile)
Can I stay for a while (Stay for a while)
On this beautiful night we'll make everything right
(Beautiful night)
(Everything right)

My beautiful
La la la la love
La la la la love

My beautiful
La la la la love
La la la la love

My beautiful love
