I want you back
I want you back
You want me too
I know it's true
Your love for me won't let me be
And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you

I can't run away
If I go to the bottom of the ocean You are there
Nowhere to escape
A rocket ship to outer space
Won't take me away from the love that you gave
When you saved me
Saved me
Saved me
Yeah
I've tried and I've tried to deny what I feel inside
It's like I'm dying

I want you back
I want you back
You want me too
I know it's true
Your love for me won't let me be
And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you

I can't understand why there's a part of me that you hold in your hands
Help me understand
Why there's a promise that's pure and a love that endures
When I'm falling
Falling
Calling out your name in the night and I'm blinded with pride
I've got to keep on trying

I want you back

I want you back
You want me too
I know it's true
Your love for me won't let me be
And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you

Your voice is screaming so loud
I can't take it anymore
I swear I'll turn right around and I'll run to your arms
That's where I will belong

I want you back
I want you back
You want me too
I know it's true
Your love for me won't let me be
And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you

I want you back
I want you back
You want me too
I know it's true
Your love for me won't let me be
And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you
Back to you
Back to you

And it's calling me
Drawing me
Dragging me back to you
