Your impossible is possible
But you're fear is so responsible
Keeping you down, keeping you down

Your unreachable is reachable
But you'll never grab the wonderful
With your feet on the ground
Your feet on the ground

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You'll never have what you won't lose
If you get up to stomp your shoes
To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You've got to find the other size
To give it one more, one more try
And start over

You only fail if you never try
You never live trying not to die
I'm telling you now
I'm telling you now

Don't ever stop, give all you got
Don't hesitate, to take a shot
It all comes around
Yeah it all comes around

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You'll never have what you won't lose

If you get up to stomp your shoes
To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You've got to find the other size
To give it one more, one more try
And start over

There's so much, so much left to gain
There's so much, so much left to lose
You'll never know until you make a move

If you fall on your face
Don't just leave it to fate
No such thing as too late
It's not too late

To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You'll never have what you won't lose
If you get up to stomp your shoes
To start over, start over, start over
Start over, start over, start over
You've got to find the other size
To give it one more, one more try
Start over
