Never mind, is this worth saying?
It won't change so am I wasting my breath?
I'm tired of where the bar is.
It's getting harder to ignore.
No glitz, no glam.
No shit, no sham.
What once was ours is fading fast.

Learn something, feel something, think something new
Those magic clothes don't play music, we do.
If it's not clear: This is a love song.
What I held dear is in need of defense.
By sword and shield, I will protect you.
They'll recognize my battle cry.
No glitz, no glam.
No shit, no sham.
The sounds we love, they might not last.

Learn something, feel something, think something new
Those magic clothes don't play music, we do.
Learn something, feel something, think something new
Those magic clothes don't play music, we do.
No Glitz, no glam
Those magic clothes don't play music, we do.
