I can't get too much further, thinking this way ya'll
Sometimes I feel like I'm losing a winning battle I can't tell the difference, no, from an enemy to a friend
Don't kick me when I'm down now, just let me be myself

Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a brother
Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a
brother

I don't even have my own opinion
There's only others Everybody tell me what I shall be I don't wanna be them
They ain't teaching what they preaching I don't fall for that

Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a
brother
Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a
brother

Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a
brother
Say one thing, do another, got to find a place, need a
brother
