I could only write a love song if I was in love
I could only write a sad song if things weren't enough
If I could only write the best song for you then I would But things aren't that easy and trust me girl just believe me

We sat alone
Thinking in our heads what would happen next
We didn't talk
But words weren't needed when our eyes would meet and we'd fall
Head over heels and girl I wish this was real but it's not

And if I find
Somebody like this I'd try
As hard as I can till she's mine
I'd search and I'd wander I'd fly
To the world's every corner we'd fall
Head over heels and girl I wish this was real but it's not

Whoever you are
Wherever you are
Whoever you are
I'll be coming for you and we'll fall
Head over heels and girl I wish you were real

And you are
And you are
And you are
