Welcome to the great debate
I promise you this will take long
Both of us can contemplate
But in the end we both are wrong.

You or I can bear the blame
But each of us responsible
Adhere or now concede in shame
But nonetheless the fight goes on and on.

Where do we go from here?
Some words never disappear.
Where do we go from here?

Are you strong or are you weak?
While all of us are dying.
You and I can push to seek,
But in the end we lie.

Where do we go from here?
(What's said, is said, is said)
Some words never disappear?
(What's said, is said, is said)
Where do we go from here?

Ah ah ah...
Ah ah ah...

You pledged to me to do what's right.
When none of us can do no wrong.
And now you hear a call to fight.
And just like that, our moment's gone.

Where do we go from here?
(What's said, is said, is said)
Some words never disappear.
(What's said, is said, is said)
Where do we go from here?

Where do we go from here?
(What's said, is said, is said)
Some words never disappear.

(What's said, is said, is said)
Where do we go from here?
From here...

AHH AHH AHH AHHH

Ah ah ah...
Ah ah ah...
Ah ah ah...
