

Down To Nothing "Outcome"

I try so hard to make it perfect but it doesn't work at All
So I do it again and again
What is the outcome, nothing, I'm still where I was Before
Don't give up, try it one more time
Sure thing I fail, again and again
Look at where I am, where am I?
I need something new to do
I want to get my mind off
All this stress it's a fucking mess
I'm caught in my own trap
But I'm swimming upstream not moving
Still stuck in the same spot
I can't see where I'm going I don't know what I'm looking

For
I just want to get out
I have five thousand darts and only one board
And I miss it every single time
I can't get anything right
I build it up I think I'm done, and then I falls apart
Again
And I'm tired, of working so hard, and accomplishing
Nothing
I want to keep going, I want to keep trying
I also want to quit but I don't quit
I'll just start something else
I'm going to try something new
I'm going to tear this apart
