Ruby, oh baby don't you know

Girl you're silence hurts me so

Are you listening

Ruby, oh baby can't you see

It's the stars (scars?) of misery

Oh are you listening

Troubles they seem to follow me

As far as i can see it must be my destiny

Troubles they carry you around

From the crib into the ground

They will never set you down

Ruby oh baby can't you see

I'm so sad it's killing me

Are you listening

Ruby if you like to think outloud it might really help me out

Are you listening

Troubles they seem to follow me

As far as i can see it must be my destiny

Troubles they carry you around

From the crib into the ground

They will never set you down

Babababa..

(Are you listening girl x2)

Troubles they seem to follow me

As far as i can see it must be my destiny

Troubles they carry you around

From the crib into the ground

Are you listening girl

Babababa...

Are you listening girl
