I believe I fell from above
Primed and ticking for your love
I believe I could rub you right
Handle all of you day and night
I believe I could stretch your hope
Widely as a mercy float
Come on, baby, give me your time
I've seen it in the stars, you're mine
I believe my days will end with you
It's true
I'm too young and I'm too strong
Get my blood up when I'm gone
Nothing baby's too big for me
Take me from his company
I could take you to heaven's heights
Trust me, baby, I'll rub you right
I don't eat, I don't need to sleep
Burning desire's enough for me
I believe my days will end with you
It's true
I think I'm ticking
I think I'm ticking
I'm primed and ticking
I think I'm ticking
I believe my days will end with you
I do
I believe my days will end with you
You look at me like I shot your dog
Venus really the God of love
Don't you turn your back, beauty queen
Remember how I watched you glean
I could stretch your wildest oats
As widely as a mercy boat
You gorgeous stack of pancakes, you
You're going nowhere 'till I'm through
I believe my days will end with you
It's you
I believe my lonesome days are through
It's you
I think I'm ticking
I think I'm ticking
I'm primed and ticking

I think I'm ticking
I believe my days will end with you
