On the first day, God created the earth and he saw that it was good
On the second day, God created man and he saw that he was good
On the third day God created music and he saw that this was good
So on the forth day God created the club and the people started to move
I said the people started to move!
And God saw the people dancing and God saw the people dancing
On the fifth day God realised that the people were only dancing and he saw this is was no good.
God wanted to party Then a blinding light came from above and God spoke to the people: "Why are you so quiet?"
But the people didn't understand and God couldn't hear them.
But God wanted to hear them screaming and making[?]party
And then he asked: Why are you so quiet?
And God saw the people going crazy and God saw the people dancing
