Ain't nobody, gonna do my baby wrong
Ain't nobody, gonna do my baby wrong
Lord, I still love that woman
Even though she's gone, long gone
Lord, I know she's out walkin', walkin' up and down the street

Well, I know my baby's out walkin'
Walkin' up and down the street, yeah
Lord, she's got a brand new story
For each and every man she meets

Blind love, blind love
It oughta be a crime
For lovin' you the way I do

My best friend knows all about it
He don't have a thing to say
Lord, he knows all about it
He just don't have a thing to say
Oh, it hurts me so bad to see you treat me this way

Well, I see my baby walkin'
Now I don't even raise my hand
When I see my baby walkin'
Don't even raise my hand
Oh, it hurts me in my heart to see you with another man

Blind love, blind love
It oughta be a crime
For lovin' you the way I do

Blind love, blind love
It oughta be a crime
For lovin' you the way I do

Blind love, blind love
It oughta be a crime
For lovin' you the way I do
