Silent shadows of the night
Faded with the mornin' light
We just wrote another song
Maybe a word or two is wrong

There's so much that could be said
It's hard to write it in a line
But when the final word is read
Maybe somethin' could be said

For all the brothers of the road
Just like you, we bear a heavy load
Been through hell and back again
If we don't lose, we're bound to win

Somehow they gave it all a name
Just like the southern hurricane
We play our music like the storm
They say the brand new sound was born

We're all brothers of the road
Just like you, we bear a heavy load
Been through hell and back again
If we don't lose, we're bound to win

Some of us fell along the way
We came together, not too proud to pray
But the music must go on
So there's no one left out they're all alone

We're just brothers of the road
Casting shadows in the night
Big wheels rollin' on and on
But everything's gonna be all right

Hey, hey yeah, everything's gonna be all right
All right, all right, everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right
Everything's gonna be all right, all right, all right, all right
