Ride on down the same old street
You've seen that thousand times
It overflows with neon lights on enormous signs
My God, how you want to leave there, well, well

Your head severely poundin' from the night before
Baby, you just keep on goin' back
Goin' back for more
Midnight's callin', well, well

You want so bad to leave that whirlwind storm
But you can't find no place to grab on
Round and round you go again
And it just ain't easy, Lord

You want so bad to leave that whirlwind storm
But you can't find no place to grab on, no, no
Round and round you go again
And it just ain't easy, oh, Lord, it just ain't easy

Lovely ladies all dressed in silk and lace
And while you're there, oh, it seems like such a lovely place
But when you leave there
You got your hat down on your face, well, well
But, oh, when you leave there
You got your hat down on your face, well, well

Oh, when you leave there
You got your hat down on your face, well, well
Seems kind of lovely
Just leave there
Got your hat down on your face, well, well, well, well
Oh, no, oh, but, oh, when you leave, leave there
I got
