Tried everything I know
Held my hand but now I've got to show
Trying to understand 'bout the things you've learned
But you don't seem to be concerned at all

I'm gonna keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave alone, keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave you alone
Gonna get you to love me

Sometimes it seems like there's just no way at all
You just keep drifting and drifting away
You ain't never home when I call you on the telephone
But I'm gonna fool around, get you back someday

I'm gonna keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave alone, keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave you alone
Gonna get you to love me

I don't care what everybody's gotta say
I'm gonna love you anyway
Even if you don't care any longer
My little bit of love keeps on getting stronger

I'm gonna keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave you alone, keep on keepin' on
Ain't gon' leave you alone
Gonna get you to love me

Lord, I'm gonna keep on keepin' on
Gonna make you mine, love me

Keep on keepin' on
Keep on keepin' on
Keep on keepin' on
