"Nevertheless"

Lay a hand full of marked cards, I played last game Well, all the time you know that everybody's doin' the same Ain't it cruel, now, baby, how life is full of such shame?

But nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin' you,
no
Nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin' you, now

With that loaded gun, you seem to have so much fun Scarin' hell outta people that you claim you love Cannot find no reason why you're doin' the things you do

But nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin' you,
no
Nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin you, no

Well, I get so tired of makin' reservations for you And even my good friends call me, make me feel the fool
But then I find no reason why you're doin' the things you do

Nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin' you, no
Nevertheless, I can't keep myself from lovin you, no

No, no
I can't keep myself from lovin' you, aah
Ooh Lord, ooh Lord, ooh Lord, Lord
