all you wanted to do was get away from here for all i know you're always going to feel the same oh this crowd would rather belong than make a break from here

oh I've never been one to see that way incidentally i read something that might be of interest to you you can only hear it if you promise not to say a word we can only do this if you wont tell anybody we can only make it if you want to leave this world they built a time machine in Tokyo we should steal it at the road show travel to year seven triple-o we can kick it like a solo

(just like a solo)

all you wanted to do was get away from here for all i know you're always going to feel the same oh this crowd would rather belong than make a break from here

i got all the maps and tools we'll need to break I got all the maps and tools and things we'll use to break inside it we can wear these future suits we'll blend in fine from what I've heard theres a stack of manga films that show us how to drive it we can only make it if we want to leave this world
