If your eyes hurt in the glaring sunlight
You should hide under the tree until the night
It will be nice and quiet around here after dark
Then you'd better go to the park
That's all I can say for you
Even if it's so rambling word...
Even if it's so rambling scar...
I hope my song will reach the parade

If you get tired of chilly darkness
You should open your eyes slowly and breathe

It will be nice and crowded here after dawn
Then you'd better take a round
That's all I can say for you
Even if it's so rambling word...
Even if it's so rambling scar...
I hope my song will reach the parade

I wish you get rid of the oppression

I hope my song will reach the parade
