all these thoughts that fill my head begin to grow
until there's nothing left to show.
the loneliness seems to grow.
i would like to live again just to know another date out on the lake [??]
through the memories starting to fade.
i wonder why there are circles in my eyes when i'm
alone, always alone.
i feel a bullet like the thread of [love?].
alone, always alone.
