"Light To Follow"

Love in a mixed-up time,
It's hard to know which way to go.
I should never forget.
Sometimes the best is left unsaid.

Everyone needs their own light they can follow.
Sometimes the best is left unsaid.

Love is a mixed-up smile,
You never know which way to go.
We should never forget.
Everyone feels their luck is going bad.
Sometimes the rest is left unsaid.

Everyone needs their own light they can follow.
We feel so alive going backwards.

You never know which way to go sometimes.
It's hard to know which way to go, fine.
You never know which way to go.
Sometimes we make a mess.
Ten times before, we should never forget,
Everyone feels that love is going bad.
Sometimes the best is left unsaid.

Everyone needs their own light they can follow.
We feel so alive going backwards.

Love in a mixed-up time, it's hard to know.
Ten times before, we should never forget.
