"Like A River"

The tears on your face, they taste so sweet
Words can't explain, so don't you speak
Now is the time to ease your pain
So open your heart, let it rain
Put your head on my shoulder
And let it all go
Put your arms around me
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow

Like some mountain made of stone, yeah
You stood your ground, you walked alone
Now is the time to bare your soul
You can't be a rock, if you don't let it roll
Put your head on my shoulder
And let it all go
Put your arms around me
Like a river let it go
Like a river let it go
Like a river let it go

Like a cold wind blowin'
Like the drivin' snow
Put your arms around me
Like a river let it flow
Put your head on my shoulder
And let it all go
Put your arms around me
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow
Like a river let it flow
