We close our eyes
And sometimes we fake it
With everyday
We try a little harder, it's true

Well, some will try
And some will shake it
But everyday becomes
A little harder for you

So justify all your phases
We're mere human, we're always guessing
Justify all your phases
The wonder road, we were changing

Around the time we begin
Is when I finally say it in
Watch us explode

She dreams of lights and going places
She's feeling great, she's gotta make it home
The rowing skies, her circling wonder
Her swinging dress, dances although

So justify all your phases
We're mere human, we're always guessing
Justify all your phases
The wonder road, we were changing

Around the time we begin
Is when I finally say it in

Justify all your phases
Keep the world always guessing
Around the time we begin
Is when I finally say it in
Watch us explode

Explode, explode, explode
Explode, explode
